

PRESTIGE

HONG KONG
JANUARY 2011 HK$50

The month in chic

FELINE FANTASY

LA-based artist Alex Prager returns to Hong Kong for another exhibition at Lehmann Maupin, bringing together diverse pieces from her photography oeuvre, all of which showcase meticulously staged tableaux. In addition to the expected crowd scenes, which use distorted scale and perspective to create commentary on the artificiality of most real-world constructs, is this piece, the prosaically titled Cats.