

ArtReview Online November 15, 2009

Tracey Emin

By James Kalm

James Kalm is slumming on the Lower east Syde when comes across this opening. Tracey Emin is a founding member of the YBAs (Young British Artists) and represented Great Britain in the 2007 Venice Biennial. Featuring over 53 works in neon, film, sculpture, embroideries and monoprints, this extensive show continues the artist's exploration and objectification of her own sexuality, lust, longing and desire.